What Do Friends Do?

- Support the library by volunteering to plan projects or events.
- Support as a Silent Partner through a membership payment. Your membership supplies the extra funds our library needs to continue to be a valuable asset to our community.
- Support by purchasing a Friends Book Bag for $10. These are available at the library circulation desks.
- Support by sponsoring a major library event.

Programs Sponsored by the Friends

- Read Across McKinney – The Friends are instrumental in planning this community project in which a book is chosen for the community to read and discuss
- Financial support for library materials and programs
- Children's Summer Reading Program Support
- Cultural and literary programs for Adults, including the Adult Review Series

The Friends of the McKinney Public Library is a membership organization whose mission is to support the library system and enrich the community by providing cultural and life-long learning opportunities.
